

Celebrate BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Touch the past of Black America

Once in a lifetime presentation
for businesses, non-profits,
colleges, schools and churches.

Photo Credit: Gale Library

Presentation & Exhibit

Available January 29 - March 2

This presentation includes true stories as told by African elders who witnessed slaves being captured and taken away.

- Hear the strategies Europeans used to capture slaves.
- Discover the largest "SUPERMARKETS" for slave trade in Africa.
- Understand the organization of the HOUSE OF SLAVES: Men-Women-Children.
- Uncover the tragedy that occurred at the DOOR OF NO RETURN.
- Find out how many slaves died and how they died during the MIDDLE PASSAGE.
- Identify which of the traditional African cultures are still alive today in African-Americans.
- Discuss what all this means to African-Americans today.
- See a 200+ year old original SLAVE SHACKLE.

Reserve Today

First 5 will receive a FREE
framed picture of the 200 year old Touch the Past Chain.

Presentation & Exhibit (1 Hour)

- $250
- Schools & non-profits $225

This is a great lunch & learn event!

Questions?
Call 1.888.646.5656 or 816.554.6000

Universal Highways | 777 Blue Parkway, Suite 3730 | Lee's Summit, MO 64086 | (816) 554-6000