

Lynda D. Hacker Bristow

Officer Hacker has been member of the Kansas City Police Department (KCPD) for 27 years. For the past 20 years, she has served as Police Trainer and Missouri POST Generalist Instructor. Her areas of certification and expertise include Juvenile Law, Child Abuse/Sexual Abuse investigation, Child Custody Investigation, Domestic Violence, CPR/AED/First Aid, and Cultural Diversity and Racial Profiling.

Officer Hacker is a Certified Instructor of Fair and Impartial Policing, a racial profiling program sponsored by the U.S. Department of Justice. She teaches numerous courses at the KCPD Regional Police Academy, MCC Blue River Police Academy, Missouri Western State University Police Academy, the MO Sherrif's Association Training Academy, and the Midwest Law Enforcement Trainers Association. Lynda has been a guest speaker for numerous law enforcement conferences and educational organizations including the Missouri Association of Police Chiefs, the Missouri DARE State Conference, the National Association for Civilians Oversight of Law Enforcement, and at numerous police agencies.

In addition to numerous recognition and awards for her outstanding work, Lynda is a proud recipient of the 2000 Officer of the Year Award by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, and the Meritorious Service Award from the KCPD for the development and implementation of the Hispanic Immersion Cultural Program.